2018/2019

Imagine a perfect Fraser Island wedding – it could be within landscaped gardens or awe-inspiring Lake McKenzie or beautiful Seventy-Mile beach.

A wedding at Eurong Beach Resort promises to be an adventurous occasion that provides stunning Queensland locations, precise organisation, delicious food and warm hospitality.

Eurong Beach Resort
Fraser Island

Weddings on an island that's naturally perfect.

World Heritage-listed Fraser Island is the natural choice for a destination wedding with a Queensland twist. Eurong Beach Resort provides a stunning variety of natural eco-systems from beach to bush land while offering you the chance to turn a seven hour wedding into a special day/night affair with the people you love.

We understand you want a stress free, blissful experience with personalised details that reflect your style. Whether just the two of you or you're celebrating with family and friends, we have everything you need in one magnificent location.

Getting to us

Your Eurong Beach Resort off-roading adventure wedding begins with a stunning journey across the Great Sandy Strait with Fraser Island Barges. Fraser Island Barges have several services daily from River Heads, south of Hervey Bay and Rainbow Beach.

Eurong Wedding Packages.

Fraser Island is the biggest sand island and the most romantic place on earth.

Eurong Beach Resort's absolute beachfront position gives easy access to the vast expanse of Fraser Island's famous Seventy-Five Mile Beach. It's an easy drive up the beach to see the mighty sand blows, coloured sands, fast-flowing Eli Creek spilling into the ocean, the Maheno shipwreck, Indian Head and the Champagne Pools. The resort is also centrally placed to visit the southern lakes, which include McKenzie and Wabby, as well as the rainforests around Pile Valley and Central Station.

The resort's modern restaurant and bar overlook a large free form swimming pool. The casual Beach Bar and entertainment centre adjoins a second pool. A bakery supplies hot bread, casual snacks and coffee and there is a well-stocked general store supplying groceries, meat, vegetables, souvenirs, resort wear, camping equipment, fishing gear, ice and fuel.

If an adventurous Fraser Island wedding is what your dreams are made of, let our experienced team work their magic. The only thing left to focus on is your big day and your beloved.

Booking and Coordination Process

Step 1. Decide on your wedding package, ceremony location and reception venue. Confirm your booking by filling in the Terms and Conditions and Booking Form. Return this to the resort along with your non-refundable deposit of $1000.

Step 2. Select your celebrant.

Your wedding coordinator can supply you with a portfolio of our preferred celebrants, or you are welcome to supply your own.

Step 3. Fill in our wedding requirements form.

This form provides us with every little detail needed to plan your special day - from your menus through to your flowers, décor, photography, cakes, hair and makeup etc.

Step 5. The requirements form is to be completed and returned to your wedding coordinator no later than three months out from your wedding date. At this time, your wedding coordinator will obtain your wedding supplier quotes for your confirmation, along with an itinerary and full list of charges.

Legal Marriage Requirements

Under Australian Law, all couples are required by Australian law to submit a “Notice of Intended Marriage” form (4 pages) (NOIM) to their marriage officiator at least one month prior to their wedding date. This form may be obtained from your marriage officiator, from the Registry of Births, Deaths and Marriages Office or online to download the form in PDF format from the relevant Government Website.

<http://www.ag.gov.au/FamiliesAndMarriage/Marriage/Documents/Notice-of-intended-marriage.pdf>

Once you have downloaded NOIM, you need to sign it in the presence of an authorised person before sending it to your marriage officiator
